

Bradley & Gmelich Law Firm Celebrates 10th Anniversary

Glendale-based law firm opened doors with two lawyers in January 2000, now employs 17 lawyers representing individuals and businesses in wide range of legal matters.

(Lexis Nexis) January 28, 2010 -- Glendale, CA (Martindale-Hubbell Newswire/PRWeb) January 28, 2010 -- The highly regarded Glendale-based law firm of Bradley & Gmelich is celebrating its 10th anniversary of representing individuals and businesses of all sizes in a wide variety of legal matters.

Founded in January 2000 by Barry Bradley and Tom Gmelich, Bradley & Gmelich has developed a strong reputation of dedication to excellent legal work for its clients. The firm offers transactional and general civil litigation services in the areas of employment law, wage and hour disputes, contract law, insurance defense, business formation and comprehensive business consulting. The firm is the recognized expert in California for legal issues related to private security companies.

"Tom and I embarked on a journey 10 years ago to build a law firm that would emphasize teamwork, preparation and vision," recalled Mr. Bradley, the firm's managing partner. "Since that time, we've selected an experienced group of attorneys to add to our team who share a common goal of serving our clients' needs, from risk management and contract review to litigation and appellate work."

Bradley & Gmelich now has five partners, 12 associates and 19 other professionals in its downtown Glendale offices. The firm's employees are deeply involved in a variety of important non-profit organizations throughout the community, including the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, the YWCA of Glendale and AIDS Walk L.A.

"We're humbled by the success we've enjoyed in the past decade and are grateful for the support of our clients and employees who have made it all possible," said Mr. Gmelich. "As we look to the future, Barry and I are excited about the prospects for our firm's steady growth, but we will strive to always remain true to our founding principles in providing high-quality legal services to our clients."

Bradley & Gmelich represents a diverse list of clients throughout the West Coast. In addition to its core areas of practice serving a wide range of businesses, the firm has established a particular reputation for excellence in a variety of niche markets, including private security companies and fitness clubs.

For more information about Bradley & Gmelich, please go to www.bglawyers.com or call 818.243.5200.